Bridal Shower Games Quick Guide

A calm, host-friendly guide for setting up Diakos bridal shower game cards, explaining the rules, and keeping the celebration moving.

1. Before the party	Choose 3-5 games, place cards and pencils at each seat, and keep one copy for the host.
2. During the party	Introduce one game at a time, set a simple time limit, and invite guests to write their names on each card.
3. Winners	Collect answers, score with the bride or host, and give small prizes for the highest scores or funniest answers.

Recommended Game Flow

Start with an easy icebreaker, move into a couple-focused guessing game, then finish with an activity guests can keep as a memory for the bride.

Moment	Good choices	Why it works
Opening	Bridal Bingo or Put a Ring On It	Helps guests settle in and start talking.
Main games	He Said She Said, Would She Rather, What's in Your Purse	Works well after guests know the tone of the party.
Keepsake moment	Advice & Wishes, Date Night Ideas, Recipe Cards	Creates cards the bride can take home.

How To Play Popular Cards

He Said She Said	Guests guess whether each statement best matches the bride or groom. The person with the most correct guesses wins.
Would She Rather	Guests choose what they think the bride-to-be would prefer. Score against the bride's answers.
What's in Your Purse	Guests check items they have with them. Add points and award the highest score.
Guess the Dress	Guests draw or describe the wedding dress. The bride chooses her favorite entry.
Bridal Bingo	Guests fill bingo spaces with gift guesses or use prompts during gift opening.
Advice & Wishes / Date Night Ideas	Guests write thoughtful advice, wishes, or date ideas for the couple to keep.
Recipe Cards	Guests write a favorite recipe and personal note for a keepsake box or binder.

Host Checklist

- Open the package and count enough cards and pencils for your guest list.
- Choose games that match the party pace: one icebreaker, one guessing game, and one keepsake activity is a reliable mix.
- Prepare the bride's answer key before the party for games like Would She Rather and He Said She Said.
- Set simple time limits: 3-5 minutes for quick games and 8-10 minutes for drawing or advice cards.
- Keep a small prize table ready for winners.
- Save completed advice, wishes, date-night, and recipe cards for the bride after the event.
